

By: Ravin Elms

WELCOME
to

Happy

Burgers!

illustrations by: Ravin

Today was the day! We are on our way to Mimi and Popo's house. I was so excited, Popo built a play house. Today we are going to make a business!

My sister Sophia asked, "What should we call it?" I said we should call it Happy Burgers and she agreed that that would be a great name. First, it started slow then people from all over the town came.

They came on horeses, four wheelers, tractors, and other wacky things.

Then one day nobody came at all. Finally we heard we heard music playing and a hores came up to the drive through window. Behind the hores was a wagon with two people in it. I + was Queen and King Crystal. I was so happy that they ate at Happy Burgers!

It was so fun serving them they ordered everything on the menu. We made $1,000,000!! We were so rich we bought more room and more chairs and tables.

After the King and Queen came everybody came. While we were serving and cooking, somebody yelled dragon!

Then everyone started to yell and run when the dragon came up to the window and ordered every one food.

th

Then a kid said that's so silly
every one started to laugh

Ha Ha!

People left and then we were a food place kids love to come to! And if you don't want to be far away from your kid you can get hired to work at Happy Burgers. So when it's your break time or your kids play time outside you can see them all the time. That's why everyone likes Happy Burgers. Hooray!

